

The Newsletter of Frank Newberry
Golf and Turfcare Sector Trainer and Motivational Speaker

May 2016 Update

2015-2016 Season a Success

2015- 2016 Season

The conference season for trainer and consultant Frank ended on a high note at Easter this year.

As the grass starts to grow and the sun begins to shine more the golf and turfcare sectors get down to the hard work of making the summer months a treat for millions of sporting people around the world.

GaNTIP Growth

Recently the IOG's Grounds and Natural Turf Improvement Project team extended their professional development with Frank to 'Meetings Skills'. This was seen as a priority skill area because so much time is being spent, and frequently wasted, at the meetings the team members have to attend to be effective.

Essentials Success

The last two one-day seminars in the suite of four Supervisory Essentials modules proved to be a great success. Delegates attended Frank's 'Enhanced Communication Skills' and 'Problem Solving & Decision Making' events. The series will start again in November 2016.

In House – On Site

If you know what's needed Frank's 'In-House On-Site' service can be a god-send to employers.

All Frank's seminars (see outline list on this page) can be brought right to your door and run for your people on your premises.

Follow Up Visits

Beginning next month Frank will start his tour of the work places of the people he has trained this past winter.

Visiting clients gives Frank a much greater idea of what works well for them and what new training is needed for the future.

If you would like Frank to visit for a chat, contact him on the numbers below to make arrangements.

Devine Intervention

Frank was thrilled to catch up last month in the USA with his oldest friend in golf – Terry Devine. He is described on Trip Advisor as being 'the best golf teacher in the state of Utah and all-around-nice-guy Terry Devine'.
